

Online Class Pass Terms and Conditions

Online Classes passes can be purchased online at www.eqyoga.co.uk

Passes become active from the date you take your first live class or recording.

Each class (live or recorded) uses one pass.

Class passes are subject to an expiry date from the date you take your first live class or recording.

The expiry dates are as follows:

1 Class Pass N/A

5 Class Pass – 5 weeks

10 Class Pass – 10 weeks

15 Class Pass – 15 weeks

Class passes will terminate after all the passes have been used or once it has reached the expiry date, whichever comes first.

Unused passes that have expired are non-refundable.

Class passes do not renew automatically.

Class passes can only be used against live online classes and catch-up recordings (available for 3 days after the live class)

Class passes are non-refundable.

Class passes may be extended in extenuating circumstances at the discretion of Equanimity Yoga.

If Equanimity Yoga cancels a class or takes a short break, you will be welcome to use your pass for a video class or Equanimity Yoga will extend the validity of your class by an appropriate length of time.

Class passes are subject to the price as they are listed at the time of purchase, irrespective of how much has been paid for previous passes.

Equanimity Yoga reserves the right to change class availability at any time.

PAYMENT

Payment is taken on the date of purchase.

If you late cancel to a class, you will be 'charged' as that pass will be marked as used and you will be sent a catch-up recording.

If you no show to a class, you will be 'charged' as that pass will be marked as used and not be available to use against any future booking.

You may contact us via email vicky@eqyoga.co.uk , text, Whatsapp or phone 07921238701 to inform us of a need to late cancel. The decision to 'charge' your pass as a late cancel will be at the discretion of Equanimity Yoga.
